

*North American Hindu Chaplains Association
2022 Annual Conference*

विवेक

“Viveka: Discerning Ourselves and Our Work”
Conference Program Saturday November 12, 2022

Conference Meeting Spaces

Barnum Hall RABB 100 (main conference venue)

Tufts Interfaith Center (available during breaks)

Goddard Chapel (available during breaks)

* All sessions are hybrid except for those marked with an asterisk. Please note a photographer will be on premises during Saturday opening and keynote and keynote and box lunch on Sunday.

Venue: Barnum Hall RABB 100 - look for the elephant statue and sign for the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life!

10:00 AM Opening Prayer and Welcoming Remarks

Dr. Asha Shipman, NAHCA Chair and Director of Hindu Life, Yale University
Rev. Elyse Nelson Winger, University Chaplain, Tufts University

11:00 AM Keynote: “Discerning the Illusion of Religious Equality in America with Khyati Joshi, author of White Christian Privilege”

Dr. Khyati Joshi, founder of the Institute for Teaching Diversity and Social Justice and professor of Education at Fairleigh Dickinson University

Moderator: Dr. Lucinda Mosher, Senior Scholar for Executive and Professional Education, Faculty Associate in Interfaith Studies, Co-Director, MA in Chaplaincy, Hartford International University for Religion and Peace

Keynote sponsored by The Chaplaincy Innovation Lab & Hartford International University for Religion and Peace

11:45 AM Break (Vote for 2:00 PM Watch Party Webinar)

12:00 PM Panel Session: “A therapist, a life coach, a monk, and a clinically trained chaplain walk into a room...”

Identifying these different modalities and how they can inter-relate, especially from the care-recipient perspective.

Panel Speakers:

Therapist: Kavita Pallod-Sekhsaria, founder, KPS Psychotherapy and Hindu Chaplain, American University

Life Coach: Dr Raj Balkaran, Founder, School of Indian Wisdom, Chaplain of Indian Spirituality McMaster University

Monk: Swami Tyagananda, Resident Swami of the Vedanta Society in Boston, Hindu chaplain, Harvard University and MIT.

Clinically trained chaplain: Shama Mehta BCC, Certified Educator Candidate, Staff Chaplain, University of Michigan Health System

Moderator: Mr. Vineet Chander, Assistant Dean, Office of Religious and Spiritual Life, Director of Princeton's Hindu Life Program, Princeton

Panel session is sponsored by the Princeton Hindu Life Program

1:00 PM Boxed Lunch* *Sponsored by Harvard Divinity School

2:00 PM Option 1: Workshop on Vocational Writing and Reflection

Join Rev. Dr. Monica Sanford and Dr. Preeta Banerjee as we navigate what we do, how we listen, and how our self-identification influences our chaplaincy.

Workshop Leaders:

Rev. Dr. Monica Sanford, Assistant Dean for Multireligious Ministry and Buddhist Chaplain, Harvard Divinity School

Dr. Preeta Banerjee, Hindu Chaplain, Tufts University

Option 2: Watch party (Webinar chosen at break)

Option 3*: Time for Reflection - visit our Interfaith Center, Goddard Chapel, take a restorative walk, schedule a 1:1 conversation with a colleague at the conference.

4:45 PM Break

5:00 PM Updates and Presentations: professional training and credentialing opportunities Rabb 100

1. Hindu ministry course at Harvard Divinity School: Father Francis X. Clooney, Parkman Professor of Divinity and Professor of Comparative Theology, Harvard Divinity School and Swami Tyagananda, Resident Swami, Boston Vedanta Society and Hindu Chaplain, Harvard
2. Interreligious Studies and Chaplaincy programs at Hartford International University for Religion & Peace: Dr. Lucinda Mosher
3. Chinmaya International Foundation Hindu Chaplaincy Courses: Acharya Vilasini Bala, Chinmaya Mission and Ms. Shamā Mehtā
4. Graduate Theological Union (GTU) Interreligious Chaplaincy Course: Dr. Kamal Abu-Shamsieh, Director, Interreligious Chaplaincy and Assistant Professor of Practical Theology, GTU
5. Hindu Community Institute (HCI) Counselor of Hindu Tradition course + Motwani Jadeja Foundation (MJF) grant: Dr. Kailash Joshi, President and Resident Faculty, HCI and Mr. Gaurav Rastogi, Dean and Resident Faculty, HCI.

6:00 PM Dinner Rabb 100

MC'd by Vineet Chander, a salon-style dinner featuring prompts (to be emailed to our virtual community who are invited to bring your eagerness to a Zoom dinner room).

Dinner sponsored by the Yale University Chaplain's Office

*North American Hindu Chaplains Association
2022 Annual Conference*

विवेक

“Viveka: Discerning Ourselves and Our Work”
Conference Program Sunday November 13, 2022

Venue: Barnum Hall RABB 100 - look for the elephant statue and sign for the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life!

10:00 AM Coffee, Tea

10:30 AM Opening and Welcoming Remarks

Dr. Asha Shipman, NAHCA Chair and Director of Hindu Life, Yale University
Rev. Elyse Nelson Winger, University Chaplain, Tufts University

11:00 AM Keynote: “Restorative Justice: a multifaith indigenous healing modality fostering community discernment, equity, and love.

Dr. Melissa Wood Bartholomew, Associate Dean of Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging, Harvard Divinity School

Moderator: Dr. Preeta Banerjee, Hindu Chaplain, Tufts University

Keynote sponsored by Auburn Theological Seminary

12:00 PM Boxed Lunch (Vote for Watch Party Webinar)* Sponsored by Babson College & Yale University

1:30 PM -
3:00 PM

Workshop blocks

Option 1: Workshop on Restorative Justice - Community Building Focus***

Rev. Kate Smanik, Dean of Religious and Spiritual Life, Colby College will lead a Restorative Justice Circle. First-hand knowledge in this indigenous practice will deepen understanding and become a potential tool for Hindu chaplains to introduce into their communities.

Option 2: Watch party (Webinar chosen at lunch break)

Option 3*: Time for Reflection - visit our Interfaith Center, Goddard Chapel, take a restorative walk, schedule a 1:1 conversation with a colleague at the conference.

3:15 PM Closing Prayer and Gratitude